Greg Bare is the vice president of M&A with Lancaster Pollard, a financial services firm based in Columbus, Ohio, that specializes in providing capital funding to the health care, senior living and affordable housing sectors. In addition to underwriting tax-exempt bond offerings, Lancaster Pollard provides organizations a complete range of funding options through its FHA/GNMA/FNMA/USDA-approved mortgage lender subsidiary. It can also provide bridge-to-agency lending, private equity, balance sheet lending and investing, and M&A services.

Mr. Bare works in tandem with the firm's health care bankers for both sell-side and buy-side advisory. He has over 12 years of experience in the health care industry. Prior to joining Lancaster Pollard, he served as the vice president of corporate development at Radiology Oncology Systems, Inc., a medical supply company that provided construction, equipment and maintenance solutions to cancer care providers. During this time he led corporate development efforts that included strategic alliances, joint ventures, acquisitions and divestitures.

Mr. Bare earned his MBA with an emphasis in finance from the Anderson School of Management at the University of California at Los Angeles. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Redlands. He holds professional licenses as a registered limited investment banking representative (Series 79) and a municipal securities representative (Series 52).
