Brendan Healy is a vice president with Lancaster Pollard, a financial services firm based in Columbus, Ohio that specializes in providing capital funding to the senior-living, health-care and affordable-housing sectors. In addition to underwriting tax-exempt bond offerings, Lancaster Pollard provides organizations with a complete range of funding alternatives through its HUD-FHA/GNMA/FNMA/USDA-approved, mortgage-lender subsidiary. Mr. Healy is the lead investment banker for all Ohio-based clients and is responsible for all details involved in the underwriting and closing processes.

Prior to assuming his current role, Mr. Healy focused his efforts on the analysis of senior housing, long-term-care and acute-care organizations, providing support on a wide range of bond transactions and mortgage loans for rehabilitation, new construction and refinance projects totaling more than $500 million. He has a thorough understanding of the various financing structures available through conventional bond financing, HUD-FHA, Fannie Mae and USDA programs. Prior to joining Lancaster Pollard, Mr. Healy worked for a Columbus-based national commercial real-estate development firm.

Mr. Healy is an Ohio licensed attorney. He earned his Juris Doctorate from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law and a bachelor's degree in finance/marketing from the University of Maryland. Mr. Healy was a three-time All-American lacrosse player at the University of Maryland and is a retired Major League Lacrosse player. He holds a General Securities Representative (Series 7) license.
