Jason Dopoulos is a managing director with Lancaster Pollard, a financial services firm based in Columbus, Ohio that specializes in providing capital funding to the senior living, health care and affordable housing sectors. In addition to underwriting tax-exempt bond offerings, Lancaster Pollard provides organizations with a complete range of funding alternatives through its HUD-FHA/GNMA/FNMA/USDA-approved, mortgage lender subsidiary. It can also provide bridge-to-agency lending, private equity, balance sheet lending and investing, and M&A services.

Mr. Dopoulos has been with the firm since 2007 and currently manages its office in Newport Beach, California. Throughout his time at Lancaster Pollard, Mr. Dopoulos has structured a range of bond transactions and mortgage loans for over 100 expansion, new construction and refinance projects with a total loan amount of over $3 billion. He has a thorough understanding of both conventional and federal financing structures for both taxable and tax-exempt borrowers, including FHA and USDA mortgage insurance and loan programs.

Mr. Dopoulos served as the vice chair of the National Investment Center (NIC) Future Leaders Council in 2015 and chair in 2016. In addition, he has spoken at numerous national health care conferences. He holds a master's degree in business from the Fisher School of Business at The Ohio State University in Columbus and a master's in health administration from The Ohio State University College of Public Health in Columbus. He holds a general securities representative license (Series 7).
