Kyle W. Hemminger is a vice president with Lancaster Pollard, a financial services firm based in Columbus, Ohio, that specializes in providing capital funding to the senior living, health care and affordable housing sectors. He works out of the firm's Austin office, which covers Texas and Louisiana. In addition to underwriting tax-exempt bond offerings, Lancaster Pollard provides organizations with a complete range of funding alternatives through its HUD-FHA/GNMA/FNMA/USDA-approved mortgage lender subsidiary. It can also provide bridge-to-agency lending, private equity, balance sheet lending and investing, and M&A services. Mr. Hemminger is the primary point of contact for western Texas clients and is responsible for all underwriting and closing process details.

Since joining the firm in 2011, Mr. Hemminger has focused his efforts on the analysis of health care, long-term care and senior living, providing support to organizations on a wide range of bond transactions and mortgage loans for rehabilitation, new construction and refinancings totaling more than $500 million. He has a thorough understanding of financing structures via conventional bond funding as well as HUD-FHA, Fannie Mae and USDA programs.

Mr. Hemminger has a master's degree in business administration from The Ohio State University in Columbus. He earned his bachelor's degree in economics from the United States Military Academy at West Point. Mr. Hemminger is a veteran of the Iraq War where he served as a cavalry officer. He holds general securities representative licenses (Series 7, Series 63 and Series 79).
